MEN UNFIT FOR ARMY DUTY TO WORK

Washington, May 30—Two hundred thousand men of draft age, who, because of minor physical defects, have been held by examining surgeons over the country for limited military service, are to be employed in producting or handling equipment for the army.

Provost Marshal General Crowder announced last night that the army staff corps will utilize the service of these registrants and thus release fighting men for the front line.

General Crowder yesterday issued the first call under the new plan. Orders went forth to Governors of States for upwards of 9,000 men for service in spruce production for airplanes. The men will be allowed to volunteer until next June 6 After that date they will be reasonable to the Provost Marshal General and if there are not sufficient volunteers, allotments will be made to the various States to be filled by voluntary.

Some 10,000 men of the army are engaged in getting out spruce timber in the Northwest and the Signal Corps constantly shr shr snr shr shr shrdlh. Consquently the sending of the new men to this field will constitute no new policy and it is understood that it has no relation to complaints that Industrial Workers of the World there have retarded the output of spruce

Some 24 trades or classes, including railroad, transport and construction men, office workers and laborers, are desired for the 'spruce divisions.' When this division has been filled, men will be called to fill other staff service of the army until the 200,000 total has been exhausted. No indication was given as to when the call will be made.

In a statement announcing the new plan, General Crowder said the solution of the question of what to do with these men had been "one of the great problems of the draft." Some of the men, it was explained, have a thumb, or toe, or eye missing, but almost every one of them is engaged in active business and thus were held to be of some use in the military establishment. After moths of study it was decided to call them into branches of the army engaged in producing equipment for the fighting men.

NEARLY WHEATLESS UNTIL AUGUST 15.

Washington, June 3.—For ten weeks the nation is to be on virtually a wheatless basis.

Squeezed down to 20 per cent of normal wheat supplies the American household must go virtually wheatless until August 15, when the new crop becomes available.

Food administration officials are quietly putting the new program into effect, it was learned officially today. Every fraternal society, church, Sunday school and religious organization has been asked by Hoover to pledge each of its members to abstain entirely from use of wheat until the new crop is out.

Official figures show that slightly over 20,000,000 bushels of wheat are left for home consumption until August 15. Normally we would use 100,000,000 bushels in that time.

Mrs Emma Wells Dead

The death angel visited the home of Mr. T. J. Wells on May 1st, and claimed for its victim his beloved wife, Mrs. Emma A. Wells. She was 74 years of age, and a member of the Baptist Church, and a christian woman. To know her was to love her.

She was survived by her husband and three children. The children are: A. R. Wells, H. M. Wells and Mrs, Alma Gunn.

One Who Loved Her.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that the tax Board of Equalizers of Shelby County, have turned in their report and completed their work of equalizing or raising the real and personal property in said County, all tax assessments and books are open for inspection in the Tax Assessors office, The Board of Equalizers will convene here at the Court House, in Columbiana, Ala., Monday June 17th 1918, and remain in session for two weeks, for the purpose of correcting any errors in assessments, or valuations.

W. E. HARRISON,
Tax Assessor, Shelby County

I kindly ask that every real estate owner in Shelby County compare their 1918 tax Assessments with their deeds, and if you find any mistakes, then some time between now and August 1st 1918, bring or send your deeds, to the Tax Assessors office so that we can correct any mistakes, that may have been made, last fall, our tax books were shipped to Columbia, Ala., instead of to Columbiana, Ala., and remained over there from July 15th to September 15th 1917, therefore you can very readily see that we only had a few days in which to prepare the tax books to begin assessing October 1st 1917, and this why I would like for you to compare your real estate number to learn if we have made any mistakes.

W. E. HARRISON,
Tax Assessor.

FARMERS MAY GET FURLOUGHS

Montgomery, Ala., June 1.—In an effort to get the services of farmers who have been called in the last draft for farm work in Alabama, Adjutant General G. J. Hubbard has written a letter to the commanding officer at Camp Seveir, S. C., where Alabama drafted men have been sent, strongly urging him to grant furloughs to these men to complete the crops in the State and pointing out the need for such furlough being granted.

An effort was made to defer calling these farmers to the colors in order that the crops would not be injured. The only remedy offered by the War Department was a provision that in case local board had enough men to fill the call in class 1 they could select men to answer to the call and leave the farmers at home.

Co. Supt, of Education.

A Tribute

Mrs. Adele Friedberger has gone to her heavenly home, and, as one who knew her well in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Max Lefkovits, I feel constrained to pay a last and loving tribute to her memory.

Mrs. Friedberger was a woman whom to know was to love and her bright, cheerful disposition and happy smile cast rays of sun-shine and happiness into the hearts and lives of all those with whom she came in contact. Her sweet and benign influence was felt, not only in the homes, where she was always welcome, but in the store, where she was a familiar figure, she always spoke cheerful and encouraging words to her friends. After having been with her and partaken somewhat of her sweet, gentle spirit the birds would seem to sing sweeter, the sun to shine brighter and life assume a more roseate hue. The tender love and devotion displayed in the home of her daughter was one of the most beautiful things I have ever seen and her extreme unselfishness and thoughtfulness of others was one of the crowning virtues of her life. Her chief ambition was to bring joy and happiness into the lives of those whom she loved and to bestow flowers and words of praise while the recipients were in life, to cheer and encourage them onward and upward, rather than after they were dead.

Of her it might well be said:

'Tis thine to curb the passions maddening away,
And wipe the mourner's bitter tear away,
'Tis thine to cheer when hope itself is fled
And soothe with Angel's hand the sufferers bed,
To give to earth its charm to life its zest,'
One only task to bless and to be blest.

A great spirit has watted its way heavenward and a beautiful and bright light has gone out on earth. A large gathering of friends and relatives from all over west Alabama to pay tribute to her memory, and great banks of beautiful flowers, show the love, respect and esteem in which she was held by the people of her old home; and her memory will always be as sacredly and lovingly revered by the people of Columbiana.

A Friend.

If you want a fine Jersey cow, call on J. W. Johnston. She will come in, in July, I will pay good price for the calf.

RED CROSS GETS LARGE AMOUNT

Washington, June 3—The American Red Cross second war mercy fund totals $166,439,291, with inditions that when all reports from the drive of a week ago are tabulated a $70,000,000 oversubscription of the $100,000,000 goal will be given.

In announcing these figures last night Henry P. Davison, Chairman of the Red Cross War Council, said the returns show that more than 47,000,000 Americans—nearly half the total population of the country—contributed. Those giving to the first fund last year numbered only about 5,000,000.

Mrs. A. H. Weaver Passes Away

Mrs. Phoeba A. Weaver, widow of the late A. H. Weaver of this place, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. I. Miller in Johnson City, Tenn., last Friday afternoon at 7 o'clock from a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Weaver was stricken with paralysis just a day before her sudden death while on a visit to her daughter.

Mrs. Weaver was for over 50 years a resident of this place, but for the past few years she had been living with her daughter, Mrs. Ella Bailey in Calera.

Mrs Weaver was nearly 78 years old, and a consistent member of the Methodist church, and was highly esteemed by every one in Columbiana.

She is survived by two sons, T. J. Weaver of this place, Will A. Weaver of Greeley, and two daughters, Mrs. Ella Baily of Calera, and Mrs. W. I. Miller of Johnson City, Tenn.

Her remains were brought here Sunday morning, the funeral services being conducted from the Methodist church by Rev. T. K. Roberts, after which her remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery.

Card Of Thanks

Columbiana's patriotism has again been shown by over-subscribing her quota in the recent Red Cross Drive $900, being her quota $1000 subscribed. I, as Chairman of the Drive, want to take this opportunity of expressing to you all, especially the committees, canvassers, booth managers and speakers for the splendid way in which you assisted me in the drive. Your co operation was so willing and your work so splendid, that we could not have had the wonderful success of the drive that we did without you.

Last, but not least, Chelsea and Mr. J. B. Turner's mill responded liberally to our call, and for this we thank them, especially Messrs Clyott, Chesser and Turner.

MRS L. H ELLIS.

Card Of Thanks

The entire family of J. L. Riddle wish to testify to their deep sense of appreciation of the many kindnesses shown them by their friends, during the last illness and death of their husband and father.

WAR COSTS A RILLION PER MONTH

Washington, May 30.—War expenses for the present month will total approximately one billion dollars more than the expensee for carrying on the war during May, 1917, according to estimates of the Treasury Department, made public today.

While loans to the Allies for this month total practically the same as the loans of a year ago, the other expenses show a large increase.

Mrs. J. F. Norris Entains Culture Club

The Culture Club was entertained by Mrs. Frank Norris last Thursday afternoon. A gold bar pin was presented by the club to Mrs. Wallace in token of their appreciation of her, as president of the club for the last two years. Rook was played at five tables. After which, ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Lightcap won the first prize, three beautiful handkerchiefs. Mrs. Pitts drew the consolation, a silk cap.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Its the duty of every true American to help round up all German spies and German sympathizers.

Reports from different sections of the county show that the present wheat crop will fall short of expectations on account of rust.

It seems from the activities of some of the ring rule Democrats and a few ex-Republicans in trying to create candidates in the Republican party, they must be uneasy and afraid to go up against the real issues in the coming campaign, but before this campaign is over we are going to see to it that each tub sits on its own end.

Wonderful efforts are now being made by a few Republican traitors and Ring-Rule-Corporation-Columbiana Democratic tricksters, to encourage men to enter the race as candidates in the Republican party, in order to create friction and soreness in the Republican party, thereby having grounds to bring out an independent candidate after the primary election.

If the Ring Rule Democrats and Ex-Republicans succeed in their propaganda you will see an independent ticket in the field after the August primary.

When a political party is so rotten that in order to carry their point that they have to resort to the same propaganda that Germany is now playing with the neutral nations, by money, by deceit, in order to carry their point, its time for men who stand for principle, for local-self government, for free America to enlist to defeat such corruption.

The political campaign is now on in Shelby County. We now challenge the Democratic party and its candidates to show to the honest voters of the county why and for what reason honest men should vote the Democratic ticket.

We believe in the good old doctrine "practice what you preach." Have you ever been to a Democratic rally in Shelby county?

When the purchasing power of a dollar can change a Republican to a Democrat in Shelby county, its good evidence that our legal tender has not depreciated in value.

SAVING THE PEAS BY FUMIGATION TREATMENT

By W. E. Hinds, Entomologist, Alabama Experiment Station.

Insects of several species multiply rapidly in stored corn, peas, etc., and often destroy a large part of the value of the crop during storage. This loss amounts to several million dollars each year in Alabama and the same is true of other Gulf and South Atlantic States.

Satisfactory and economical fumigation requires the use of a room or bin having unusually tight floor and walls as the vapors must be confined long enough to penetrate through the mass of grain and kill the insects. It requires at least thirty minutes exposure to a very strong gas to kill the weevils.

For treating peas, beans, seed corn, shelled corn, etc., a WATER-TIGHT BARREL makes a good container. The top may be covered tightly and conveniently by spreading heavy wrapping paper over and tying it close around the head of the barrel.

For treating peas, etc., in barrels, an average dosage of about one-half teacupful is sufficient if the top of the barrel be tightly covered. This can well be poured onto sacks, etc., packed in to fill the top of the barrel. If peas are really thoroughly dried out the germination will not be affected even if the liquid is poured on them directly.

Leave the barrel closed for at least 24 hours and no harm will be done if left indefinitely. Fumigation is much more effective during warm weather (75 degrees to 85 degrees F.) partly because of the more rapid evaporation and partly because insects are then more active and therefore more susceptible to it. Never attempt to use carbon disulphid when the temperature is below 60 degrees F. It is better to start the treatment at 10:00 to 11:00 A. M. rather than at night, both on account of having good light and also higher temperatures. A second and stronger treatment should be given if after a week or two it should appear that the first was not effective. Carbon disulphid can be obtained most economically by purchasing in quantities of 100 lbs. or more direct from manufacturers. "Fuma" carbon disulphid is cheapest. The address of manufacturers will be given any one upon request.

PROMPT AND THOROUGH TREATMENT IS MOST PROFITABLE.

LATE CROP OF TOMATOES

By J. C. C. Price, Associate Horticulturist.

One should not wait until the spring crop of tomatoes is gone before starting the fall crop. It requires about 100 days to grow tomatoes from seed. A good date to plant is about May 20, from which fruit will begin to ripen about September 1. The June Pink is one of the most satisfactory varieties for late planting.

The seed bed should be well prepared, using sandy loam soil and leaf mold from the forest. It should be conveniently located so that watering may be done when located. A partial shade should be provided. When the plants are about two inches high reduce the shade so as to toughen them to the sun.

The soil should be well prepared and if possible some well rotted manure should be worked into it. If manure cannot be had an application of equal parts of acid phosphate and cottonseed meal at the rate of 800 pounds per acre, should be made. The fertilizer may be distributed in the row and mixed with the soil, or it may be worked in about the plants after transplanting.

Cloudy weather is best for transplanting. If there is not a good season in the soil at time of setting the plants, water should be used. The moist soil must be covered with loose dry soil. As soon as transplanting is done a shallow cultivation should be given. The cultivation should be repeated every week or ten days, especially after each rain.

Do not permit the vines to branch too profusely, but allow three or four main stems to grow. If the plants are staked only one or two branches should be allowed to grow. When staked plants should be set two feet apart in the row, the rows being four feet apart. If not trained to a stake the plants should be set four feet apart each way.

SOY BEANS FOR HAY

By E. F. Cauthen, Associate Agriculturist.

Among the new hay crops soy beans have proven satisfactory. The yield of cured hay ranges from 1,500 to 3,000 pounds per acre when they are planted on good land.

Mammoth Yellow, Wilson, Black Beauty, and Virginia are suitable for this crop. They are either bushy or semi-vines in habit of growth, and are easy to mow.

Soy beans make a larger yield of hay when planted in drill and given two or three shallow cultivations. The rows may be made from 24 to 36 inches apart, and to secure a stand of beans they must not be put in the ground too deeply. The best stage to cut for hay is when the bean pods are beginning to form. If allowed to stand much later a great deal of the foliage may be lost from shedding. Soy bean hay is as difficult to cure as cowpea hay, but the same methods employed to cure cowpea hay will give a fine quality of soy bean hay.

SWEET POTATO ROOT BORER

By W. E. Hinds, Entomologist, Ala. Exp. Station.

It seems that for every crop there appears, sooner or later, some kind of insect pest. The sweet potato has been unusually free from such pests in most sections. About thirty years ago, however, a serious pest of this crop was introduced from the West Indian Islands probably to the vicinity of New Orleans and since that time it has been spreading slowly. Fortunately the adult rarely flies far and it is therefore possible to control this weevil as has not been possible with the boll weevil. This sweet potato root borer, or weevil, was not known to occur in Alabama until February 21, 1918, when is was discovered at Grand Bay in Mobile County. It is not certain that it occurs elsewhere in this State but there is a possibility that it does occur elsewhere without having been discovered.

In order to protect the sweet potato growing industry of the future with least expenditure of time and money the Alabama State Board of Horticulture has enacted quarantine rules and regulations to govern the movement of sweet potato planting stock in the same way as ordinary "nursery stock" has been handled in the past, as the weevil appears to be spreading almost entirely in the movement of infested planting stock. Parties having planting stock for sale, or to give away, should have their stock inspected so that they may receive a certificate showing that the stock is apparently free from this pest and they can then use the inspection tags with each package shipped thus protecting both themselves and their customers in this matter.

A recent publication, Circular No. 37, of the Alabama Experiment Station describes this insect and also gives the quarantine regulations. All sweet potato growers should get this circular which shows pictures of the insect and its work. They can then be on the lookout for any suspicious specimens and send them at once to the Entomologist, Auburn, for identification.

In cooperation with the U. S. Bureau, through which Congress has appropriated funds to the aid in controlling this pest, we have arranged to have four men begin at once in Alabama such inspection and extension work as will best enable us to locate the borer if it does occur elsewhere in Alabama and to prepare our sweet potato growers to handle the insect and exterminate it wherever it may be found in the State.

Close cooperation and prompt action should enable us to keep this enemy from becoming a serious menace to the sweet potato crop which was valued at more than $10,000,000. for Alabama in 1917 and should be even more valuable this season. With the further establishment of sweet potato storage houses the crop can be kept far better than under the old system of banking. There is also very encouraging prospects of an important development in the line of drying plants and the utilization of the sweet potato for making flour and other products which promise a bright future for sweet potato growers of this State.

LOYAL ALABAMA'S SPLENDID RECORD

IN THE LIBERTY LOAN AND RED CROSS DRIVES ALABAMA ASTOUNDS THE COUNTRY.

NOW WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Gives Her Another Grand Opportunity—Secretary McAdoo's Message to the Patriotic People of State.

Alabama has jumped to the forefront in war activities. In the Third Liberty Loan drive she was a leader among the states in the sixth federal reserve district. In the second Red Cross war fund campaign she gave approximately a million dollars more than her quota of $450,000. Certainly, the citizens of Alabama should feel proud of these records, which show that the state is awake to the war.

The next opportunity Alabama will have to make a record for patriotism is in the great drive for War Savings Stamps, which has begun and will culminate on the 28th day of June in thousands of patriotic gatherings in every state. This drive in Alabama has been very carefully planned by Crawford Johnson, State War Savings Director, and the County Directors and there is no doubt that it will be a splendid success, as the people of the state recognize the War Savings Campaign as one of the greatest and most far-reaching of all war activities.

The idea of the drive is to get every citizen to pledge himself or herself to purchase at different periods all during the year 1918, a specific amount of War Savings Stamps. The United States government is calling upon everybody to do this. Read this message from the Secretary of the Treasury and do your duty:

A Message From Secretary McAdoo.

Secretary McAdoo has authorized the following statement:

"It is essential that the American people economize and save in order to make available to their Government the money indispensably needed for the war and to release supplies and labor required for the production of things necessary for our own military forces and for the military forces of the nations associated with us. One of the best methods of bringing about this result is for everyone to pledge himself to economize and save and to purchase, at definite periods, a specific amount of War Savings Stamps, thus giving concrete evidence of his support of the practice of War Savings.

"To achieve this object there will be conducted, under the direction of the Treasury Department, and with the strong endorsement of President Wilson, a campaign for pledges, culminating on June 28th, when loyal Americans throughout the country will be asked to commit themselves to this program.

"The progress of the war demands constant and increasing sacrifices. We are sending our young manhood to represent us on foreign battlefields, where they are called upon to sacrifice not only their personal comfort and material interests but their lives as well. It is appropriate, therefore, for the American people who are privileged to remain in safety and comfort at home to consider their sacred obligation to support our gallant men and to pledge themselves earnestly to save and economize in order that our soldiers and sailors may have the food and clothing and the arms and ammunition without which they cannot fight.

"To the end that this intensive campaign may be most effective, I earnestly bespeak the co-operation of all the organizations and institutions of the nation which, through their influence and active support, can further this work. It is desirable that the attention of the entire people be centered on their obligation to pledge the Government this kind of support for the winning of the war, and with this object in view, that June 28, 1918, be observed as a National War Savings Day.

"With adequate preparation for a National War Savings Day on June 28th, I am sure that the American people will be glad to participate and to pledge themselves to become war savers, thereby giving concrete evidence of their devotion to their country."

A PATRIOTIC SCHOOL.

From Huntsville comes the report to State Director Crawford Johnson of the War Savings committee that $20,000 worth of Baby Bonds were bought by the school children out of an enrollment of 1,600 pupils. In sending in his report, Superintendent R. C. Johnson of the Huntsville school writes:

"If I do say it, we have done more than we have talked, and I am hoping to pass this little word along, because the children and teachers who have worked so zealously deserve some recognition of this spirit of patriotism."

TUSCALOOSA LEADS.

Tuscaloosa city ranks first, and Tuscaloosa county second among the cities and counties in Alabama in the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps to April 6th, according to figures recently made public at a conference of county directors in Birmingham, which was attended by Mr. J. T. Horne, director for this county.

The per capita subscription of Birmingham, Tuscaloosa's nearest competitor in the State, was $2.04, while that of Tuscaloosa was a little over $6; or three times as great. The other cities of the state are even farther behind Tuscaloosa's fast pace.

The total subscription of Jefferson County on April 6 were $270,620 or $1.18 per capita. The total subscriptions of Tuscaloosa County, which was second to Jefferson, were $52,057, or $1.10 per capita of population for the county.—Tuscaloosa News.

In Memory.

On May 23rd, 1918, Mr. R. J. Niven, one of Shelby County's finest young men departed from this life, after a few days illness of appendicitis and pneumonia. Jack was born near Wilsonville August 1, 1896, and spent the mos of his life with his parents at home. A few weeks before his death he went to Sheffield to work for the Government, and while there the call came to him. It was the pleasure of the writer to know this young man for some years, and to know him was to like him, Jack was always ready to do his part for his friends. It seemed to give him great pleasure to help any one in trouble. We will miss our young friend, and yet we bow our heads to Him who does all things well, and say thy will be done Lord. The funeral service was conducted from the Wilsonville Baptist church, of which Jack was a member by the writer and the Baptist pastor, after which we laid his body away in the family cemetery. Jack leaves behind to mourn his going away, his father and mother, one sister and one brother, and a great number of friends. May the God of all grace comfort the loved ones.

Notice

Notice is hereby given that the tax Board of Equalizers of Shelby County, have turned in their report and completed their work of equalizing or raising the real and personal property in said County, all tax assessments and books are open for inspection in the Tax Assessors office, The Board of Equalizers will convene here at the Court House, in Columbiana, Ala., Monday June 17th 1918, and remain in session for two weeks, for the purpose of correcting any errors in assessments, or valuations.

W. E. HARRISON,
Tax Assessor, Shelby County

I kindly ask that every real estate owner in Shelby County compare their 1918 tax Assessments with their deeds, and if you find any mistakes, then some time between now and August 1st 1918, bring or send your deeds, to the Tax Assessors office so that we can correct any mistakes, that may have been made, last fall, our tax books were shipped to Columbia, Ala., instead of to Columbiana, Ala., and remained over there from July 15th to September 15th 1917, therefore you can very readily see that we only had a few days in which to prepare the tax books to begin assessing October 1st 1917, and this why I would like for you to compare your real estate number to learn if we have made any mistakes.

W. E. HARRISON,
Tax Assessor.

CORN CHEAP AND MEAL HIGH--WADE

Something is radically wrong between the corn crib and the kitchen. Corn is quoted on the markets in Alabama at one dollar and thirty to one dollar and fifty cents per bushel and hundreds of farmers have corn for sale who unable to get buyers at these prices. At the same time meal is being sold at retail in Montgomery and other cities as high as seven cents per pound, which is at the rate of three dollars and thirty-six cents per bushel.

The customary price for milling has always been eight pounds of corn or the difference between the weight of a bushel of corn and a bushel of meal plus the cost of the sacks. We are informed that some commercial millers in the State are buying corn at one dollar and fifty cents per bushel or less and selling the meal at two dollars per bushel. If the value of the toll is added to a profit of fifty cents, then the total mill profit is eighty cents per bushel less the cost of sacks. To make the situation still worse, it appears that dealers in the cities add an other dollar per bushel as their profit for selling the meal in six and twelve pound paper bags. These conditions and figures vary to some extent when applied to different communities, but in some communities and in most of the cities they are approximately correct.

In view of the fact that we are forced by federal law for patriotic purposes to eat corn bread, which is absolutely right that we should and in view of the fact that Alabama has a bounteous supply of corn to feed her people until the new harvest, the consuming public should demand of the authorities, whose duty it is to administer the law, that this gross profiteering on meal be stopped. The toll is sufficient profit for milling corn. 20 cents per bushel for sacking and ten to twenty per cent is enough for retail profits. On this basis, the retail price of meal should not exceed fifty to fifty-five cents per peck or two to two dollars and twenty cents per bushel.

I have talked to the U. S. Food Administrator for Alabama, who assures me that he is heartily in favor of any movement to stop speculation in bread material and to reduce the enormous margin between the price of corn and the price of meal. I have discussed the matter with several county food administrators and find that the prices of meal vary from the exchange of a bushel of meal for a bushel of corn as practiced by the small rural mills under an agreement with the food administrator to seven cents per pound or at the rate of three dollars and thirty-six cents per bushel in some of the cities. The county food administrators in these localities were consulted and stated that commercial meal was being purchased by wholesalers at three dollars and eighty-five cents per hundred pounds. They assert that they have no knowleuge of retailers selling at a rate equivalent to seven dollars per hundred pounds. They have no way of finding it out unless the people who are made to pay these prices would report it to them. This, they should do, if they want protection. The fact that these charges do exist is evidenced by a score of charge tickets now in our possession which were picked up from residences by inspectors of this department.

We are not after persecuting any one. Our contention in the matter is purely to raise the price of corn or lower the price of meal in the interest of the stomachs and purses of the common people with whose loyalty and help we must win this war. I know of no speculation that approaches nearer to crime, than to exact excess profits from the bread of a patriotic people who are bending every energy and making every sacrifice to help the Government win the struggle for democratic liberties and world freedom. Let the people demand that the laws regulating profiteers be rigidly applied to the Kaiser's Allies who speculate on the bread of sacrificing patriots.

J. A. WADE,
Com. of Agri. & Ind.

ELECTRIC PLANT BEING INSTALLED

F. M. Blackerby has received his new Delco Lighting system and is installing same in the McGhee building. The plant will furnish enough light for 500 lamps so we are informed.

The plant will be put into operation this week, which will be a great convenience to the citizens of Columbiana.

Aid and Missionary Society To Meet

Members of the Baptist Aid and Missionary Society are requested to assemble at the Church next Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. Business meeting.

Secretary.

A Tribute.

In the recent death of Mr. J. L. Riddle at Wilsonville on the night of of June 1, after a brief illness, Shelby County looses one of the oldest and most estimable citizens.

About six weeks before his death the children and some of his friends gathered in the home and spread a beautiful home-made feast in celebration of the sevenieth milestone of this Father, now gone from their midst,

He lived a quiet but energetic and successful life. Though without special demonstration of his affection he loved his home and his friends dearly.

A widow, a second wife, Mrs. Eva Riddle, and five sons, W. E. and G. W. Riddle of Riddle Bros. Wilsonville; L. B. Riddle with Talladega Grocery Co., Wilsonville; J. D. Riddle with J. F. Johnson Lumber Co., Brent, Ala.; B. R. Riddle with Southern Weighing and Inspection Bureau, Meridian, Miss.; Mrs. I. E. Taylor of Bessemer, Ala., Mrs. J. A. Spearman of Wilsonville. All are left with many grandchildren and friends to mourn his loss.

An unusual event was that of the five big, fine, sons and son-in-law J. A. Spearman who served as pallbearers.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church by the pastor, C. J. Bentley, in the presence of a large gathering of friends.

C. J. BENTLEY.
Avondale, Ala.

J. M. Frost of Spring Creek, was in town Wednesday.

Secretary of War Baker announced Tuesday that the American fighting forces now in France number over 700,000. That 250,000 soldiers were sent to France in May.

HOW TO SOLVE THE MARKETING PROBLEM

By J. J. Watson.

The most important factor today in selling farm products is not prices but weights. The unusual war demand is keeping prices high, and the various activites of the Government agent, cies are tending to make these prices uniform; so that the farmer has much less reason than formerly to worry about the actual selling price of any product that he grows.

The high price, however, makes it all the more important that the weight should be aceurate. When cottonseed were worth $20 per ton, a shortage of fifty pounds from a bale of cotton meant a loss of only fifty cents. Today a similar shortage means a loss of nearly two dollars. Furthermore as prices become more stable the temptation of the unscrupulous buyer to give short weights will be intensified as being the only means of taking unfair advantage of the farmer. It has been the experience of the writer that a large number of farmers in all parts of the country are dissatisfied with the weights which they now obtain.

Very often the trouble is due to poor scales. Even the best of scales when protected from the weather, require constant care to keep them in order. Is it any wonder, then, that a cheap scale, such as is found throughout the country, when constantly exposed to the weather, with little or no oversight, should fail to weigh accurately? This is undoubtedly the source of much of the present dissatisfaction.

On the other hand, in spite of the fact that the reputable business men of the country have tried to eliminate fraud from their operations, there are in almost every small town unscrupulous dealers who depend upon crookedness and short weights rather than upon business efficiency for their profits. They are the enemies of both the farmer and the reputable business man and should by all means be eliminated.

The best means of correcting these evils is the City Scale in charge of a Bonded Weigher. This problem has been completely solved by the towns of Ozark and Enterprise, Coffee County. In each case the town council purchased a Standard Fairbanks Scale, 22x8, which is long enough to weigh both team and wagon at the same time. A susbstantial shed and weigher's house combined was built for the protection of both scale and weigher in all kinds of weather. The weighing is done by a bonded weigher, and the farmer pays 10c per load regardless of the weight. At both Enterprise and Ozark the receipts for the first year were sufficient to pay for the equipment and the weigher's salary as well.

At Ozark a City Ordinance requires all farm products to be weighed on these scales. At Enterprise the weighing is optional, but the plan was so satisfactory that the farmers refused to patronize individual scales and they soon went out of business. Mr. C. E. Bush, City Weigher at Enterprise, reports that between September 1, 1917, and April 1, 1918, he weighed more than 2,000 loads of farm products.

If you are not satisfied with your weights talk it over with your town authorities and ask them for a City Scale and a Bonded Weigher.

FALL CROP IRISH POTATOES

By J. C. C. Price, Associate Horticulturist.

The fall crop is important, but little has been done, however to determine the best methods of culture. Getting seed potatoes to germinate is the chief obstacle. The usual custom is to use small potatoes from the spring crop. These are placed on the ground in thin layers in the shade, then covered with gunny sacks or sand and kept moist. When the time for planting comes tubers that have begun to sprout are taken up and planted without being cut to pieces, care being used not to break off any of the sprouts. One of the most satisfactory methods is to use the Bliss Triumph variety and plant the same day they are dug, using the medium sized tubers.

The soil for the fall crop should be kept in a good state of cultivation so as to preserve the moisture. This is done by breaking the ground early in the spring and pulverizing it to prevent the loss of moisture by evaporation. The ground may be first planted in some spring crop, such as beans, that could be given continuous cultivation.

The fall crop should be planted about July first to fifteenth, in the northern part of Alabama, and August fifteenth to September first, in the southern part of the State.

In planting the fall crop it is best to make the furrows rather deep so as to be able to cever the tubers from four to five inches and leave the furrows partly filled or the surface practically level. Sometimes the soil is firmed with a light roller so as to press the soil closely about the potato, which favors germination.

The culture should be given with an implement that will thoroughly pulverize the soil and leave the land level.

There is considerable difference of opinion as to the best variety to use for the fall crop. In South Alabama, the growers use seed from the spring crop. This may also be done very successfully in North Alabama, but many growers prefer the Lookout Mountain, which is used only for the fall crop.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

JUNE 28, 1918

PROCLAIMED

National War Savings Day

President Wilson Calls Upon Loyal Americans To Pledge Themselves To Save and Invest in War Savings Stamps to The Limit of Their Ability On Or Before June 28.

THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION NAMING JUNE 28 AS NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY IN THIS STATE

Meetings Will Be Held In Every Community On That Day To Secure Pledges To Buy War Savings Stamps.

Pursuant to the appeal of the President of the United States, the call of the Secretary of the Treasury and the proclamation of the Governor of this State, I, War Savings Director for Alabama, acting under the authority of the United States Treasury Department, have called all tax payers and wage earners to meet on Friday, June 28, to pledge themselves to buy War Savings Stamps. In rural communities and the smaller towns and cities, meetings will be held in the school houses at 2 p. m.

The school officers will conduct the meeting in each school house, keeping a record of the proceedings and reporting the names of all persons present and the amount of War Savings Stamps subscribed for by them. The names of absent persons, and those who refuse or neglect to subscribe, with their reasons for so doing, will also be reported.

War Savings Stamps (which are United States Government Bonds the same as Liberty Bonds), can be paid for during any month in the year 1918, but it is intended that subscriptions will be signed for them on June 28.

The price of each War Savings Stamp depends upon the month during which it is bought. During June each Stamp will cost $4.17. In July each Stamp will cost $4.18, and so on, one cent more each month during 1918. On January 1, 1923, the Government of the United States will redeem all War Savings Stamps at $5.00 each, no matter during which month in 1918 they were bought. They cost less during the early months in 1918 than during the later months because the person who buys earlier has loaned his money to the Government for a longer time than if he should buy later.

By way of illustration, note the following table:

Cost of War Savings Stamps During June, July and August, 1918.

	Cost in June	Cost in July	Cost in August	and Are Worth on Jan. 1, 1923
1 Stamp.....	$4.17	$4.18	$4.19	$5.00
20 Stamps.....	83.40	83.60	83.80	100.00
50 Stamps.....	208.50	209.00	209.50	250.00
100 Stamps.....	417.00	418.00	419.00	500.00
200 Stamps.....	834.00	836.00	838.00	1,000.00

The law provides that no person can hold in his own name War Savings Stamps exceeding $1,000 maturity value. War Savings Stamps, however, may be purchased for other members of the family, including minor children.

The money invested in War Savings Stamps is not a gift, or a donation, but is a loan to the Government. It will all be paid back with 4 per cent. compound interest. If, because of some serious financial reverses, or calamity, it should be necessary to get your money before January 1, 1923, you may do so by giving ten days' notice to any Money Order postmaster, in which case you can get what you paid for the Stamps, with interest to date of payment. The Stamps are free from all State and local taxes; when registered at the postoffice they are insured against loss; they are backed by all the property in the United States; they cannot fall in value below the price you pay; they are as convenient and as well paying an investment as has ever been offered by our Government.

A definite quota of War Savings Stamps has been assigned each school district and community, which will be announced at each meeting on June 28th. The Government of the United States expects all the citizens of every school district and county to subscribe for its quota and to pledge themselves to save and economize to help win the war.

It is to be hoped that the subscriptions taken at the meetings in your county will show you and your neighbors to be loyal Americans to whom our Government, in this hour of need, does not call in vain.

CRAWFORD JOHNSON,

Alabama War Savings Director appointed and acting under the authority of the Secretary of the United States Treasury.

HOW TO SAVE YOUR CROPS

COW PEAS AND SOY BEANS

There seems to be an over supply of cow peas and a few unsold soy beans on the market that are being offered at very reasonable prices, These peas and beans should all be purchased and planted on the wheat and oat stubbles and idle lands during the month of June. Peas can be planted as late as the middle of July, but the earlier the better. You cannot produce too much hay of this kind. The country has never had enough cow pea and soy bean hay produced in any one season. Early sowing means more and better hay. It will be ready to cut before cotton picking and general crop gathering time arrives. It ripens before the hot weather is gone and requires less time and weather risk for curing, storing and reduces the danger of blue mold. If we are ever to make Alabama a live stock country, as it should be, more legume hay such as cow peas and soy beans must be grown. If we ever improve our soils and use less commercial nitgrogen, it must be done by sowing legumes on all stubbles and idle lands. These pea and bean stubbles will come in very handy this fall as a wheat patch or for corn or cotton next year. Many people are already sowing their peas and beans. It is to be hoped that the farmers will not put this off any longer than can possibly be helped.

SAVING IRISH POTATOES

The new crop of white potatoes unfortunately came on the market in competition with a large surplus of old crop potatoes and the price has sagged to unprofitable figures. These potatoes should be saved from waste. Potato growers have been advised to let the potatoes stay in the soil until the surplus is largely used up and a better demand is created. The idea of allowing potatoes to remain in the soil for keeping is temporary, and good for only three or four weeks. If allowed to stay in the soil all summer grass and weeds will infest them to the extent of making harvesting difficult. The use of the land for other crops will be lost. The potatoes will turn loose the vine and a large per cent. will try to germinate or rot when subjected from dry to wet conditions.

HARVEST POTATOES DRY

In dry weather potatoes lose part of their moisture. They can be harvested in this condition and spread out on the floor of vacant houses or barns with the doors or gables open, allowing free air circulation where they will continue to dry and keep well. The difficulty in keeping potatoes through the summer usually comes from harvesting from wet soil, too much moisture in potatoes, and rough handling, resulting in skinning and bruising, and storing in bulk or in hot or damp storage places without dry air circulation. If potatoes are harvested from dry soil, carefully handled and spread in dry storage with air circulation, they will keep better than in the soil. The land can be planted to corn, sweet potatoes, peas or soy beans and produce a more profitable second crop than the first one. Potato patches are generally select, fertile soil, well fertilized, and it is important that the potatoes be harvested, preserved, and the soil converted to another crop.

CLUB GIRLS MEET AT MONTEVALLO

The annual State Short Course for Club Girls will be held at the Alabama Girls' Technical School at Montevallo June 17-22.

It is to be held under the auspicies of the Junior Home Economic Extension Department of the Alabama Extension Service. This Division of the Extension Service is endeavoring through its agencies to be helpful to as many women and girls as possible. Those attending the Montevallo meeting will be made up largely of prize winners and leaders from each County. Special training is to be given along lines of farm poultry, home gardens and orchards, food preservation, a balanced diet, etc.

While the principle object is one of instruction, yet everything possible will be done to give the girls a good time in a social way.

This work is in the immediate charge of Miss Mary Feminear, State Home Demonstration Agent from Auburn. At the Montevallo meeting she will be assisted by Misses Mary Keown, Louis Thomas, Gladys Tappan, the county agents who attend, and the faculty of the Alabama Girls' Technical School.

Fourmile

As our little burg has not been represented for quite a while. I will try and represent it this time. Why do we not have more correspondents to our little paper? Just think how much more interesting we could make the Advocate if someone from each burg would send in the news items each week, I'm sure the editor would appreciate it. So lets wake up and let the people through the Advocate know what we are doing.

It is getting very dry, although farmers are keeping encouraged and progressing nicely with their work.

Bro. Owens filled his appointment here Sunday, preaching two very interesting sermons.

Sorry to report Miss Beulah Blackerby on the sick list. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Armstrong and Mrs. Robt. Nolan went to Harpersville Saturday where they were called to the bed-side of their sister, Mrs. Walter Blackerby. We are glad to note, however that Mrs, Blackerby is some better.

Mr. Isaac Whorton who has a position at Ensley was visiting home folks Sunday.

Childrens day will be observed at Blue Spring the 5th Sunday morning beginning at ten o'clock.

The Sunday Schools at Fourmile and Blue Springs are progressing nicely.

Miss Grace Gardner was the guest of Miss Estelle Whorton Sunday.

Mrs. Jas. Whorton, Leah and Ruby attended the celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Orpanage at Talladega Saturday.

Dr. J. S. Moore and family have moved to Maylene where they will make their home.

8,085 AMERICANS KILLED, CAPTURED

Washington, June 17.—Seven hundred and seventy casualties reported among the American Expeditionary Forces during the week ending Sunday brought the total since American troops first landed in France nearly a year ago to 8,085.

The second weekly summary of casualties issued by the War Department shows the total number of deaths from all causes is 3,192, while 4,547 men have been wounded in action, and 346 are missing in action, including all men held prisioners in Germany.

The summary, which includes Sunday's list, follows:

Killed in action (including 291 at sea) 1,172.

Died of wounds 364.

Died of disease 1,234.

Died of acident and other causes 422.

Wounded in action 4,547.

Missing in action (including prisoners) 346.

Total casualties reported to date 8,085.

With more than 800,000 soldiers sent overseas, officials point to the small number, 291, lost through operations of German submarines as showing the effectiveness of the convoy system.

Two Colored Registrants are sent Off

The following is a list of the colored registrants sent to Tuskegee Institute, Tuskegee, Ala.

James Finley, Vandiver
Elgin Datcher, Vincent

The above men will receive a course of training in mechanical work.

Notice of Extra Importance

There are in this county as well as other counties, people carrying around a satchel full of glasses and calling themselves opticians. They place a pair of magnifying glasses before your eyes and it makes the print larger, and they have you believe that they have fit you with glasses and charge you the same price and some times more than you would pay for glasses ground to fit your eyes that will strengthen them and last you for years. Your eyes have a reserve of sight the same as your Bank has. Now if your Bank kept taking from the reserve it would soon brake down, so when you purchase a pair of magnifying glasses and after a while they get so you can't see, you can rest assured that those glasses have taken a good part of the reserve of sight from your eyes that can never be restored. Now by a little consideration you can't get glasses out of stock in stores or out of stachels that will fit the eyes. You have got to get your eyes examined and by a competent Refractionist, and then have your glasses ground to suit and fit the eyes. Then also find out as to the reliability of the Refractionist. The writer has an office in Columbiana, and is there all the week and every Saturday at Riddle Brothers store, Wilsonville. I have two manufacturing prescription grinding plants, also installing another one; was with Dr. Calhoun seven years, have looked after the eyes alone for 26 years, my work is guaranteed, that is easily said, but investigate the guarantee. Beware of peddlers and cheap spectacles.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN IN OCTOBER

Washington, June 17.—The government, as forecast recently by the United Press, is preparing to launch the fourth Liberty Loan in October approximately a $6,000,000,000 issue, the largest of any nation during the war to date at an interest rate of 4¼ per cent.

Secretary McAdoo has informed bankers they will be expected, during the next four months, to assume $4,000,000,000 in treasury certificates and $2,000,000,000 additional will be offered to the public.

Plans for the great loan are rapidly being formulated, posters, buttons and valuable war trophies to assist in arousing enthusiasm already having been tentatively selected.

Harpersville

The League and the B. Y. P. U. are doing good work now.

Miss Louise Skinner from Montevallo is visiting friends here this week.

Mr. Clyde Spruell delighted his home folks with a week-end visit.

R. M. Brown spent the week-end in Birmingham.

Walter Chancellor from Camp Wheeler, spent the week-end here with his parents.

Miss Lockie Posey has returned home from her school to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Myrtis Spruell spent the week end with her parents.

Messrs. Clyde Spruell, Isaac Stone, Misses Lenard Elizabeth Chancellor and Willie Mae Spruell motored to Easonville Sunday.

Miss Lucille Hitchcock from the A. G. T. I., and Miss Myrtle Atchison from Florence Normal, have returned home.

Dudley Glaze delightfully entertained the B. Y. P. U. and the League at his beautiful colonial home on Saturday night. The reception hall and the parlor were beautifully decorated with ferns and pink roses. After playing games the guests were invited out on the lawn, where Misses Netta and Winnie Glaze, sisters of the host, served fruit and ice cream. Then all cut the cake containing a button. Mr. H. P. Kimbrough won the prize, a box of chocolates.

Wilders Hill

According to the ruling of the County Board of Education the Wilders Hill school will begin its new year's work July 15th, 1918. T. W. Shelton and daughter, Mrs. Olive Roper are elected to return to Wilder's Hill. They did splendid work there last year.

The Wilder's Hill school spent a very enjoyable afternoon singing at the home of their teacher's last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Olive Roper are splendid in intertaining the young people.

Mr. L. Ray and family spent the day with Prof. and Mrs. T. W. Shelton, Sunday. Mr. Ray's presence was a great inspiration to the singers Roy Simmons and Miss Ira Rasco helped lead in the music.

A School Scholar.

Singing

There will be an all day singing at the Saints church, near East Saginaw, on the 4th, Sunday in June, in the Sacred Harp and other books. Everybody invited to come and bring their books and dinner.

To Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, La.: John W. Crim of Longview, and Frank Brown Munroe of Sterrett.

To Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala.: Fred Hardy Frost of Calera, and Peyton H. Montgomery of Harpersville.

The above selected men will receive a course of training fitting them to serve in army positions requiring knowledge of auto mechanics, radio operating, and other mechanical duties incident to many kinds of military service, both at the front and behind the lines.

Editorial.

Primary election Tuesday, August 13th.

Don't forget the date of the primary election, Tuesday, August 13. All qualified voters should show their colors on that date by casting his ballot according to his honest convictions.

It is rumored that a Democrat will make his announcement this week as a candidate for the Legislature. Wonder if thore will be a reward offered for him a helper to run on the Republican ticket?

All qualified voters of tne county whose name failed to appear on the qualified list as published in this paper a few weeks ago, should make proof of his qualifications before the Probate Judge and have his name placed on the qualified list and thereby avoid having to make this proof on day of election.

Its not so very long away before the people of the county will have a chance to select a man to represent them in the next Legislature We hope to send a man to this assembly who will relieve us of some of the laws we now have, and should he be able to abolish about half the laws now on the statute books, he would be heralded throughout the country as a patriot and hero.

Democracy is local self government, local self-government is a government of the people, by the people and for the people. In Shelby county we have eleven officers who hold their office by a voice of the people, and eight officers who hold their office by appointment. We have a little more than a half Democratic form of government. Pretty good for Shelby county.

As the political campaign begins to warm up and as the question arises, who was responsible for the members of the last Board of Revenue, (which was elected to office) being thrown out and a new Board appointed, you can hear the voice of these prospected Democratic office seekers and office profitters, echoing in the far distant hollows—I WAS OPPOSED TO IT. They will almost deafen you.

Singing

The first district sacred harp singing convention will meet with Fourmile church, the first Sunday in July beginning Saturday before, at 1:30 p. m. Everybody come and bring your old books, and well filled baskets.

F. M. Hataway, Pres,
Mrs. Mae Moore, Secy.

Ronda Pitts' Writes.

The following is a part of a letter Mrs J. B. Pitts received last week from her son Ronda, who is at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C.:

Dear Mama:—How are you today? I hope you feel good, also the rest of the family.

We havn't had to do very much today, I am at the Y. M. C. A., you know this is certainly a good place for men to go to. They don't have pool rooms here in the Y. M. C. A. like has been reported. We gather here for Sunday School, write letters, read and listen to good music. What more can I expect so far away from home.

Card of Thanks

I desire to return my thanks to the people of this community for their kindness shown during the illness and death of my sister Miss Elizabeth Crenshaw, which occured on June 7th after three months illness. May God's blessings be with them through life.

WAR SAVINGS DRIVE ON WITH A RUSH

STATE COMMITTEE CONFIDENT ALABAMA WILL GO "OVER THE TOP" JUNE 28.

THE QUOTA MADE EASY

By Distributing It Among the School Districts Reasonably and Equitably.

Birmingham, Ala., June 18.

That June 28th, National War Savings day, will see Alabama "over the top" on her quota of war savings stamps, is the confident anticipation of Crawford Johnson, director of the national War Savings Committee for the State of Alabama, and his associates on the committee.

For a time Alabama lagged in the buying of War Savings Stamps, but the field agents of the war savings committee who are covering all sections of the State are writing to headquarters that a wonderful change is taking place in the sentiment of the people.

The State Awake.

They are now awake to the fact that a war savings stamp is a real government bond, more attractive in some respects than other government bond issues and that the purchase of these "Baby Bonds" (so-called) is a patriotic duty as well as a sound investment. These agents report that the people in the strictly rural sections are becoming as enthusiastic over the war savings stamps as the dwellers of the larger cities and towns. This is not surprising, after all, in view of the splendid record made by rural Alabama in the Third Liberty Bond and Red Cross war fund drives.

County Directors Active.

The activity of the county war savings directors, and their committees, is also a source of much satisfaction to the central committee. Almost without exception these county directors are throwing themselves heart and soul into the campaign and report their organizations in fine shape and working like beavers.

The call for literature, posters and advertising matter from county chairmen has greatly exceeded the anticipations of the state director, and the clerical force at headquarters is taxed to the utmost to meet the demand.

More Than a Million Postcards.

Incidentally and as illustrating the enormous amount of printing which the campaign for the month of June entails, it is announced that state headquarters is sending out 1,200,000 post cards carrying the Governor's proclamation and a summons to the recipients to appear at the designated places in their school districts on June 28th, there to pledge themselves to buy war savings stamps at specified periods during the remainder of the year to the limit of their ability.

The quota of war savings stamps for Alabama, by the way, has been apportioned by the state committee among the school districts (there are upward of 5,000 districts), and each district is told that it is expected to complete its quota on June 28th. The school district's quotas have been carefully worked out by experts at state headquarters with a view of making them equitable, and the quotas are being sent to the districts for review by local equalization committees.

This Makes It Possible.

It is believed this method will make it possible for every school district to raise its quota and thus enable Alabama to come up to the expectations of the national War Savings Committee and win the commendation of President Wilson and the whole ation.

It should be understood, however, that the war savings committee and their workers are securing as many pledges as possible in advance of the official pledge day and are meeting with distinct success on that line. These advance pledges will be announced at the meetings and are expected to have a very stimulating effect.

Alabama Plans to Get Out of Cellar on W. S. S. Pledge Day.

At a luncheon-meeting of the committee on agencies of the local War Saving Stamp committee Thursday night at the Southern Club plans were made for the intensive drive for the sale of Baby Bonds and thrift stamps which will begin in Birmingham in the next few days.

Joseph H. Loveman, city chairman, presided and made an inspiring speech in which he declared that on National Pledge Day, June 28, Alabama would come out of the cellar in the sale of Thrift Stamps. It is planned through an intensive campaign to pledge Birmingham's quota on that day.

Next Wednesday all local agencies some 800 in number, will be carefully checked over and instructions given regarding the coming campaign.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

JUNE 28, 1918

PROCLAIMED

National War Savings Day

President Wilson Calls Upon Loyal Americans To Pledge Themselves To Save and Invest In War Savings Stamps to The Limit of Their Ability On Or Before June 28.

THE GOVERNOR OF ALABAMA ISSUES HIS PROCLAMATION NAMING JUNE 28 AS NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY IN THIS STATE

Meetings Will Be Held In Every Community On That Day To Secure Pledges To Buy War Savings Stamps.

Pursuant to the appeal of the President of the United States, the call of the Secretary of the Treasury and the proclamation of the Governor of this State, I, War Savings Director for Alabama, acting under the authority of the United States Treasury Department, have called all tax payers and wage earners to meet on Friday, June 28, to pledge themselves to buy War Savings Stamps. In rural communities and the smaller towns and cities, meetings will be held in the school houses at 2 p. m.

The school officers will conduct the meeting in each school house, keeping a record of the proceedings and reporting the names of all persons present and the amount of War Savings Stamps subscribed for by them. The names of absent persons, and those who refuse or neglect to subscribe, with their reasons for so doing, will also be reported.

War Savings Stamps (which are United States Government Bonds the same as Liberty Bonds), can be paid for during any month in the year 1918, but it is intended that subscriptions will be signed for them on June 28.

The price of each War Savings Stamp depends upon the month during which it is bought. During June each Stamp will cost $4.17. In July each Stamp will cost $4.18, and so on, one cent more each month during 1918. On January 1, 1923, the Government of the United States will redeem all War Savings Stamps at $5.00 each, no matter during which month in 1918 they were bought. They cost less during the early months in 1918 than during the later months because the person who buys earlier has loaned his money to the Government for a longer time than if he should buy later.

By way of illustration, note the following table:

Cost of War Savings Stamps During June, July and August, 1918.

	Cost in June	Cost in July	Cost in August	and Are Worth on Jan. 1, 1923
1 Stamp.....	$4.17	$4.18	$4.19	$5.00
20 Stamps.....	83.40	83.60	83.80	100.00
50 Stamps.....	208.50	209.00	209.50	250.00
100 Stamps.....	417.00	418.00	419.00	500.00
200 Stamps.....	834.00	836.00	838.00	1,000.00

The law provides that no person can hold in his own name War Savings Stamps exceeding $1,000 maturity value. War Savings Stamps, however, may be purchased for other members of the family, including minor children.

The money invested in War Savings Stamps is not a gift, or a donation, but is a loan to the Government. It will all be paid back with 4 per cent. compound interest. If, because of some serious financial reverses, or calamity, it should be necessary to get your money before January 1, 1923, you may do so by giving ten days' notice to any Money Order postmaster, in which case you can get what you paid for the Stamps, with interest to date of payment. The Stamps are free from all State and local taxes; when registered at the postoffice they are insured against loss; they are backed by all the property in the United States; they cannot fall in value below the price you pay; they are as convenient and as well paying an investment as has ever been offered by our Government.

A definite quota of War Savings Stamps has been assigned each school district and community, which will be announced at each meeting on June 28th. The Government of the United States expects all the citizens of every school district and county to subscribe for its quota and to pledge themselves to save and economize to help win the war.

It is to be hoped that the subscriptions taken at the meetings in your county will show you and your neighbors to be loyal Americans to whom our Government, in this hour of need, does not call in vain.

CRAWFORD JOHNSON,
Alabama War Savings Director appointed and acting under the authority of the Secretary of the United States Treasury.

In Memory

On Wednesday morning, June 12th, the death angel entered the home of Mr. A M Walton and claimed for its victim, his beloved wife.

She was only sick a few days and her death came as a shock and surprise to her heart broken parents, husband, brother, sisters and other friends. "Weep not dear ones" she is not dead only sleeping. Some sweet day, oh how sweet, the thought you can meet her again on an eternal shore.

She leaves a vacant place in the home, which never, never can be filled. She professed religon and joined the Baptist Church when young, and has lived a christian life since. She is gone but not forgotten never will her memory fade. Sweetest thoughts, will ever linger round the grave where she was laid.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Fourmile cemetery, Thursday morning, June 13th, 1918, there to await the resurrection morn.

Her Neice,
Margie Oldham.

FIRE DESTROYS TWO HOMES LAST SUNDAY

The homes of J. L. Isbell and M. L. Almon were destroyed by fire last Sunday morning. The fire originated in the Isbell residence about 9:30 o'clock, and soon the two houses were in ashes.

By heroic work of our citizens, the residence occupied by Mrs. E. D. Duran just across the street was saved from the flames.

The fire originated in a closet on the first floor of the Isbell residence, and when discovered was beyond control. The only things saved out of the Isbell home was a piano and some bed clothes. Mrs. Isbell lost about $200 in in money in the fire.

Everything in the Almon residence was saved. The commissary of J. L. Isbell near his residence was destroyed by the flames but nearly everything in the store was gotton out.

The barn just across the street owned by Henry Lester, was destroyed.

At one time it looked like every residence in that part town would be destroyed, but the good work of our citizens prevented the flames from spreading. Mr. Isbell carried insurance to the amount of $2,500 on his house and furniture, which partically covered the loss.

Mr. Almon estimates his loss at $2,500 with no insurance.

The residence occupied by Mrs Duran and owned by Henry Lester was considerably damaged, which is covered by insurance.

This makes the second time the residence of Mr. Isbell has been destroyed by fire in the past four years.

All of our citizens deserve much credit for the heroic work they did in Sunday mornings fire.

Notice To Farmers

Montgomery, June 22, 1918.

We are just in receipt of a telegram from Washington permitting us to announce that farmers who grow wheat are now allowed to have ground at any one time, sufficient wheat to produce a three months supply of flour. Also the basis of farmers growing their own wheat is now twelve pounds per person per month for use of their households and tenants.

The use of substitues on the present basis is still in effect.

Thomas Bragg.
Executive Secretary.

It will take about one bushel of wheat per head to fill the above requirement.

900,000 SOLDIERS NOW IN FRANCE

Washington, June 22.---Nine hundred thousand men have been shipped across the seas, General March told newspapers correspondents at the weekly conference today. These include the troops shipped from all American ports of embarkation. The United States today is five months ahead of its program for placing an army in France, General March said. The figures on American troop shipments are significant, since General March at his first conference last week fixed the number shipped at more than 800,000, the addition of 100,000 during the week showing the rate of progress that is being made.

Allies Owe $5,970,340,000 To U. S.

Washington, June 22.—A credit of $15,790,000 to Greece, the first under the new financial agreement between that country and the United States, is announced by the Treasury Department. This brings the total of Allied credite to $5,970,340,000.

KILL YOUR DOG OR PAY THE TAX

Notice to all who owe dog tax:

In order to discharge my duty as tax collector, I am calling attention of all who assessed a dog in 1916 for 1917 taxes. A good number have paid this tax, and I wish to say to those who have not paid that the State authorities are after this matter in full force and say that they are going to see to it that it is paid or charge same to the officer or offieers who have it in charge for not doing their duty.

So this is why I am again giving you a chance to pay this tax: First in order that I may discharge my duty and get relief, and, second, that you may not have to pay the extra fees and cost that will accure if the State Solictor proceeds, as he stated to me he was going to do, if the tax was not paid.

Every man that assessed a dog knows it, and he knows whether he has paid it or not. So all who have not paid their dog tax may take this as final and last notice, as it is about time for the tax books for the year 1917 to close for final settlement with the State and County.

J. S. BIRD,
Tax Collector.

Casualties In U. S. Army, Large Amount

Washington, June 23.—Casualties in the American army overseas thus for reported by General Perishing, including the list made public today, total 8,634, as compared with 8,085 a week ago. They were divided in the war department's weekly summary today as follows:

Killed in action (including 291 lost at sea) 1,312.

Died of wounds 432.

Died of disease 1,258.

Died of accidents and other causes 446.

Wounded in action 4,811.

Missing in action, including prisoners, 365.

Casualties among the marines with the expeditionary forces are not included in the list. No official tabulation of the casualties reported to date was avilable, but unofficial figures show that they total slightly more than 1,000.

The 549 names reported by General Pershing since last Sunday included 140 killed in action, 68 died of wounds, 34 died of disease 24 died of accidents and other causes, 264 wounded in action and 19 missing in actian, including prisoners.

With some 900,000 men now in France, the small number of deaths from disease reported is considered rather remarkable and shows the American soldiers are in fine physical condition.

Dr. Carter Will Be At Wilsonville June 29

Dr. A. T. Carter will be at Riddle Brothers store, Wilsonville, Saturday, June 29, fitting prescription glasses.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the people of Columbiana for their kindness and assistance in removing our household goods out of our home that was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning.

Questionnaires Are Being Mailed Out

Questionnaires are being mailed, 25 per cent each day, to all men who registered on June 5, 1918. All questionnaires will have been mailed by June 28, and any registrant who has not received his questionnaire should call on the Local Board for it.

Members of the Legal Advisory Board and Associaties, who gave such valuable assistance to registrants under the first registration, have been appointed by The President to assist all new registrants.

If there is not a member of this Legal Advisory Board in your community, bring your questionnaire to Columbiana, and any lawyer will be gladly, free of charge, assist you in filling out your questionnaire.

New Sugar Rules

Federal Food Administrator Hobbie is today issuing instructions to all retail merchants of the state which still further limit to amount of sugar to be sold to a purchaser.

Retailers are ordered not to sell more than two pounds of sugar at a purchase to town and city customers; and not more than five pounds at a purchase to rural customers.

This order is made necessary by reason of losses of sugar by submarine attacks and the difficulty of obtaining shipping to bring in Phillipine and more remote sugar. Its purpose is to provide for an equal distribution of aviable sugar so that there may be no shortages in any communities.

Housewives are urged to reduce their domestic consumption as much as possible and in no case to exceed three pounds per month per person.

TO THE VOTERS OF SHELBY COUNTY

Editor Peoples Advocate:

Please allow me space in the Advocate to make a few statements in reference to matters at issue in the coming campaign, I have never tried to mislead the voters of Shelby County upon any matter of public interest. I have always stood for local self government, and believed that the people should have the right to elect all their officials, and when a proceeding was instituted by Pat Kroell to oust me as President of the Board of Revenue I fought the case to a finish, and when the supreme court decided against me, I did all that I could to get the Governor to appoint all the men elected, back to the places the people had given them by their votes, and a number of the most influential Democrats of the county went to Montgomery at their own expense and urged Governor Henderson to appoint the men elected, but he refused to do so, and Shelby County was denied the right to select her own officials, and local self government was destroyed in Shelby County, and the Governor appointed men to office who was not elected. As to the Vehicle Tax I desire to state that for 20 years, I have been in favor of requiring the men who use the public roads to such an extent, as to cut them up to be made to fix them or pay a license. I do not believe that the farmers ought to be required to work the roads and then allow saw mill drays and log wagons to ruin the roads and do nothing towards repairing them. I have never believed that the farmers who only uses the roads to go to church or town ought not to be required to pay license. We all have a right to our individual opinions, and we ought to grant others the same right and all of us ought to be willing for a majority to rule, and we ought to be willing to abide by what the majority desires; if I had been a member of the Board of Revenue, and a majority of the voters of the county asked that a license be placed on all vehicles I would have voted for it, and if a majority voted against putting a license on any Vehicle, then I would have voted against any kind of a Vehicle tax; I believe in local self government, and allowing a majority to rule I have been legislated out of office too many times to stand for anything else.

Longcrier--Farley

Mr. Johnnie Longcrier and Miss Dewey Farley were quietly married at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Farley on East College street last Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed on the front porch in the presence of a large crowd of friends of the bride and groom by Rev. J. H. Longcrier of Fayette, Ala., father of the groom. Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Wales W. Wallace sang "My Dear." The wedding march being played by Mrs. Rosa Teague.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L Farley and numbers of her friends by the score in Columbiana. The groom is the youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. J. H Longcrier of Fayette, and has made his home here for several years, but for the past few months has been holding a position at Sheffield.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Longcrier left for Fayette to spend a few days befooe going to their new home at Albany, Ala., where Mr. Longcrier has accepted a position in the office of the L. & N. R. R. Company at that place.

Food Facts

NEWS OF THE WEEK

From State Food Administration

—Montgomery.

WHEAT IS THE TEST.

Germany's war of starvation is a challenge most of all to America.

Against Germany's lust for dominion, America's purpose is to establish the society of nations. Against destruction, America's aim is healing. Against mastery, America's ideal is service.

We cannot surpass the steadfastness of Britain, the courage of Italy, the exaltation of France.

We cannot excel the Allies in heroism, in endurance, in fortitude. Our force in battle—though it may be decisive—will not be as great as theirs.

We can hope to contribute most to the common cause from our larger resources. To relieve desperate privation, America can supply food.

Giving up wheat is a little thing compared to their death struggle—in which our soldiers are splendidly sharing.

A little thing—yet we can do it with greatness of spirit. Supporting our army and adding wholehearted service to humanity, it is in America's power to defeat forever the passion of conquest.

Now is the hour of our testing. Wheat is the test.

LET ALL WHO CAN DO MORE.

The best we can do, it will not be enough to meet all needs. We cannot make up the submarine losses nor replace the spent reserves.

Doing our utmost, not everyone in this country can keep within the allowance. Masses in crowded cities, with no proper kitchen outfits, depend on their bakery bread and ready cooked food. Their habits are controlled by their circumstances.

Those who can must do more to maintain the margin.

Some wheat in any case must be brought from Argentine, the less the better. For every voyage to Argentine is the same as taking two vessels from the short Atlantic ferry. Every vessel taken from that traffic keeps a regiment from the front.

Going without wheat adds directly to our forces in battle. Going without wheat loosens the shipping tension which limits our armed strength.

A splendid response comes instantly. Hundreds of hotels have pledged themselves to go without wheat until harvest. Households, communities, counties all over the land have cut down wheat to the limit or given it up altogether.

But the best we can do is too little. Let all keep within the allowance; let all who can, do more.

INSTRUCTIONS TO FEDERAL CORN MILLERS.

"This is to inform you that Certificate Form No. 3 may be issued to persons actually engaged in work on the farm, including tenants, share hands and wage hands, providing that corn has been furnished them by the landlord or the renter of the land from corn raised on the farm, place or plantation on which they are now working and that you exchange or grind this corn into meal.

"In no case can Certificate Form No. 3 be issued where you sell meal."

SELMA TO THE FRONT.

Hon. J. B Ellis, County Food Administrator for Dallas County, writes the Food Administration as follows:

"Our merchants, both wholesale and retail, as well as the consumers, have entered into the spirit of conserving flour, sugar, etc, and as a result the merchants in Selma have today ready to be turned over to any place that the Government may designate, about 3,000 or more barrels of flour that can be delivered by or before May 1st.

"We have submitted to Mr. Loeb, the Wholesale Grocers' Representative, a list of the different concerns that have this flour on hand, showing the prices and size packages that it is put up in, so that he can take the matter up and dispose of it wherever he desires.

"I believe that if the people of our State would all come up in a responsive way as we have in this connection that we would soon have the question of the flour supply for our allies in hand."

WHAT MARENGO HAS DONE.

"No more wheat flour will be sold in Marengo County until the new wheat harvest comes in." This is the message received by R. M. Hobbie in a signed statement from the merchants of Marengo County last Thursday morning. The written pledge of the merchants is to the effect that as soon as the stocks of flour now on hand are sold, no more will be purchased during the present season. The pledge winds up with these splendid words: "We call upon all true and patriotic men and women of this county to join us in this war measure, and we desire to go on record as proclaiming the lack of patriotism of those who will be selfish enough to object to an insignificant sacrifice which will mean the saving of the lives of millions of fellow beings.

"This pledge is made in the fear of God and out of fullness of hearts that have heard the cry of the distressed and the call of the God of love and tenderness."
